MEET OUR DIRECTORS

JARED BRISCOE - OVERNIGHT PROGRAM DIRECTOR

Jared fearlessly leads our Overnight Camp program. Fun Fact: It started in 1958 and it's Heartland's longest running program! He brings a passion for intentionally getting to know each of our summer staff (because he was one once) while helping them to grow in their faith as they serve our campers. Oh, and he LOVES playing games and being an example for kids to open up and be silly.

"I came to Heartland first as a middle school camper through a friend of a friend. In my time as a high school camper, Heartland became my favorite place on earth and I have been a part of this ministry ever since." -Jared

RACQUEL REEKIE - PARKVILLE DAY CAMP + STAFF RECRUITMENT DIRECTOR

Racquel excels at making camp an amazingly fun place for day campers as well as connecting with college students on the recruitment trail. Her love for people, the outdoors, and her quick wit make her a perfect fit for the role and this director team. When not in the office at Heartland, you can find her swing dancing with friends or reading at coffeeshops in Kansas City.

"I was introduced to Heartland during a college recruitment visit my freshman year. Jared recruited my dear college friend then, and she took me back with her the following year. I served two summers, went away to New Zealand, and then the Lord called me back full time!" -Racquel

ANNA MITCHELL- TRAVELING DAY CAMP + GAP YEAR PROGRAM DIRECTOR

Anna leads our incredible Traveling Day Camp program with her seemingly unending joy and brilliant mind for logistics. She's been on summer staff and loves to encourage and empower her staff as they travel around the mid-west. We don't know how she does it, but she is always on the go and giving her all to everything she does. Oh, and she's a champion at Rubik's cubes and has the most beautiful singing voice.

"My Grandfather served as the Executive Director at Heartland from 1965-1990. I am so excited to follow in his footsteps as a Heartland director 30 years after he retired!" - Anna
